Restoration Completed

John 19:28-30

Being fully God gave Jesus the authority to bring about spiritual restoration; being fully man gave him the _____ to find us right where we are, to forgive us, and to restore us.

Discussion 1. Jesus was both FULLY GOD and FULLY MAN. Which of those realities do you have the hardest time connecting with? Why?

Not only was Jesus' death on the cross itself an act all about spiritual restoration, but even each of his interactions with others while on the cross were about _____. It is hard to miss.

Discussion 2. How would you describe for a 6-year-old the connection between Jesus' crucifixion and our spiritual restoration?

"It is finished" means all the requirements for our spiritual restoration have now been met. There is nothing more for you to do or for me to do other than _____. It really is finished.

Discussion 3. Can you think of any ways we might try to "add" requirements to our spiritual restoration, as if it really isn't yet finished? What is the danger of doing this?

Spiritual restoration for all of us came as a result of Christ giving his own life; nobody took his life, he gave it. Nobody gets credit for our spiritual restoration but _____.

Discussion 4. Does it matter to you that Jesus did not have his life taken, rather, that he sacrificed himself on his own terms? Why or why not?

Discussion 5. How does this lesson cause you to pray? How does it prepare your heart for worship?
