

The Centrality of the Spirit John 1:29-34

If Jesus' fundamental purpose on earth was to take away the sins of the world, the Holy Spirit's fundamental purpose among us is to _____ _____ to Jesus.

Discussion 1. How would you answer the question, "What was Jesus' purpose on earth? Why did He come?" How would you answer the question, "What is the Holy Spirit's purpose?" How does your answer to these questions actually take place in your own life?

The danger (and sometimes folly) of WWJD is that we would ever endeavor to answer that question without the supernatural equipping of the Holy Spirit. Without the _____, our picture of Jesus becomes whatever our tribe wants it to become.

Discussion 2. What steps or structure can you put in place in your own life to make sure your understanding of Jesus (and His will for you) has not been twisted or confounded by your own ideologies? Why is this important for a Christ follower?

The Holy Spirit descended to identify Jesus, Who ushered in the baptism of the Holy Spirit, so that we, as believers, can be indwelt by the Holy Spirit. So, how important do you think the Holy Spirit is to _____?

Discussion 3. In your learning and understanding the gospel message, do you think your view of the Holy Spirit has been too small, too large, or just about right? Why?

The members of the Trinity exist together and with complete reference to each other. A wrong understanding of one is a wrong understanding of all. This reality should drive every Christ follower back to _____.

Discussion 4. What role does scripture study play in your weekly routine? As you grow your own spiritual discipline of studying scripture (either through our Re:Verse system or otherwise), what is your next step in that growth process?

Discussion 5. How does this lesson cause you to pray? How does it prepare your heart for worship?
