

Finding Truth and Wisdom Daniel 2:1-30

We have created a dangerous world where truth and wisdom either come from within our own ideological echo chamber or it is deemed unknowable. Ultimately, when we need it most, the world's wisdom _____.

Whether we are listening to others to better understand the problem(s) or listening to God to better understand wisdom and truth, the way forward is more about _____ than persuasive talking.

Discussion: 1. Who are the “magicians, sorcerers, and Chaldeans” of our culture? To whom does our culture look for truth and wisdom? 2. What are some practical next steps for you, in order to be known as someone who models “deep listening”?

The heart engaged in _____ is likewise a receptacle for truth and wisdom...and vice versa. Wisdom and worship are inextricably related.

If, as a Christ follower, I have any wisdom, any light to shine onto a pathway forward, it is not to my credit at all, but to God's. Truth and wisdom are a _____, or they are nothing at all.

Discussion: 3. For you personally, do you need to focus more on wisdom in order to worship better, or do you need to focus more on worship in order to get to wisdom? 4. Share an example you have seen where truth and wisdom became a witness for Christ. 5. How does this lesson cause you to pray? How does it prepare your heart for worship?
