Lesson 1: King Jesus

Lesson 2: An Empty Tomb

He is Risen

John 20:1-18

The compulsion to _____ what we have experienced with Jesus is baked into this entire movement we call Christianity and, ultimately, into every Christ follower's individual spiritual growth experience.

Discussion 1. In your time of following Jesus, when have you felt the most compelled to “go and tell” about your experience with Him? Why then? What circumstances at that time made you more inclined to go and tell your story?

While belief in Jesus' physical death and resurrection is common to every Christ follower's faith, our respective _____ to get there are unique to each of us. God knows what you need to experience in order to believe.

Discussion 2. What kinds of environments or circumstances does God use to get your spiritual attention? What did it take for you to believe in Jesus?

God responds to _____. For so many people in scripture, this was their posture right before He opened their spiritual eyes to see the Savior for Who He is.

Discussion 3. Why is humble desperation so conducive to spiritual awakening? What is it about that kind of posture/attitude that draws us close to God and Him to us?

A change or deepening of our relationship with Jesus usually means a commensurate _____ in our responsibilities as a Christ follower. When Jesus pulls me closer, I should pay close attention to why.

Discussion 4. Can you recall a moment or season in your walk with Jesus when your newly deepened relationship with Him resulted in a new calling or new assignment as well?
