

Review:

Lesson 1: King Jesus

Lesson 2: An Empty Tomb

Lesson 3: He is Risen

The Road to Emmaus

Luke 24:13-35

Jesus meets us unexpectedly in our _____, often when we are struggling to make sense of this life. This is what a Savior does.

Discussion 1. Can you recall a time or circumstance in your life when Jesus showed up unexpectedly? How did you know it was Him? What did He do or say that helped you?

As the Living Word of God, Jesus represents _____ in a way we have likely never heard it or understood it before. God's Word helps us understand what we are experiencing in the world around us.

Discussion 2. How would you help a new Christian understand the difference between (1) using our life experiences to interpret scripture and (2) using scripture to help us interpret our life experiences? Why is that distinction important?

The Spirit has a way of opening our _____ to see God, ourselves, and the world around us in new ways, helping us see more clearly or for the very first time.

Discussion 3. Has your relationship with Jesus become intimate and familiar enough that there is some way you immediately recognize His voice? What is that thing for you?

After a genuine encounter with Jesus, we simply cannot help but tell others what we saw and heard and how it changed us. We do not share out of duty nor obligation nor because we have been trained to do so...we share because the change in us _____ to do so.

Discussion 4. Why do we tend to think of "sharing our testimony" as pertaining only to non-believers? Why is it just as important to tell other believers about our genuine encounters with God?