Dealing with Doubt

Luke 24:36-43; John 20:24-29

For those on the threshold of a decision to follow Jesus, _____ and _____ with His resurrection are only natural, even common. Jesus welcomes those doubts and engages them and lovingly navigates them with us.

Discussion 1. Can you remember a time in your life when you had doubts about Jesus' resurrection? How did you navigate those doubts? Who helped you? What helped you?

The Biblical teaching of body and soul is that they are created by God as fully integrated and are not separable by us. What we do to/with our _____, we do to/with our _____. Think about how much that reality has to say to our current culture.

Discussion 2. Why is it important that we teach our children a Biblical understanding of body/soul? Why is it important that they learn to love their bodies as having been designed and created by God?

Learning to “rejoice with those who rejoice and mourn with those who mourn” is not an exhortation merely for the benefit of those others; practicing gospel centered community is for our own _____. _____.

Discussion 3. Can you think of how “rejoicing with those who rejoice and mourning with those who mourn” has specifically benefited you?

Learning to hear from and experience God through His indwelling Spirit in others has always been a critical _____ in the church. Spiritual formation in community with other believers is foundational to the Christian faith and cannot be overstated.

Discussion 4. What can you do to help you better experience Jesus in others? What can you do to help others better experience Jesus in you?
