How God Speaks

Psalm 19:1-14

The evidence of God across all of creation is profound. It takes extraordinary faith to believe all of it came about with such _____ and _____ by chance or happenstance.

Discussion 1. What is your favorite example of something from creation that makes a compelling case for a Creator God? Was there ever a time in your life when you did not believe in God as Creator? What role did your learning about creation play in helping you believe in God?

The natural order and beauty of the sun, moon and stars speak to the existence of (and on behalf of) an all-powerful Creator. It is the first and most universal way God _____ as humans.

Discussion 2. If God is “speaking” through all of Creation, what is He saying to you? What kinds of things does Creation teach us about God?

All Scripture is _____ and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. 2 Timothy 3:16

Discussion 3. For you, what is the number one reason you study the scripture? What is the biggest benefit you get from it? If you were to commit to spending more time each week in the Bible, what would it look like? Where in your schedule would you start?

As we come to understand Who God is, we also begin to understand the devastating effects of sin in our lives, and our need for forgiveness. We become more and more aware of just how much _____.

Discussion 4. If you have sinful attitudes or heart issues of which you are otherwise not aware, how does God reveal them to you: through scripture, or through other people, or some other means?
