Loving God's Word

Psalm 119:1-16

There is a specific category of _____ which follow from our devotion to God's Word.

Discussion 1. How might you measure a person's devotion to God's Word? What are some examples of "spiritual blessings" in your own life which you might attribute to your devotion to God's Word?

Every genuine Christ follower's prayer is that God will incline our hearts to help us make choices in line with His desires for us. Those choices deepen our love for Him which, in turn, _____ our hearts. It is the perfect rhythm for spiritual redemption.

Discussion 2. Can you think of any ways God has, over time, changed your heart's desires, i.e., reshaped your heart to want a good thing He intended rather than a bad thing you used to want? For you, was that change a quick, easy change or was it a gradual change over time?

For the Christ follower, quality time spent studying and internalizing God's Word (scripture) is a natural part of our personal and corporate _____. Scripture feeds our understanding of God and facilitates His voice in our lives.

Discussion 3. To you, is there a difference between studying scripture as an act of worship and just studying scripture? If so, how would you explain that difference?

For those who seek God, there is a profound value in God's Word. The more time we spend meditating on it, the _____ that _____ goes.

Discussion 4. Do you think your love for God's Word has grown over time? How do you know? How might those close to you know this about you?
